ORAL JUDGEMENT

Heard the learned counsel for the parties. It is submitted at the Bar that the original Regular Civil Suit No.4 of 1992 from which the present appeal arises is ripe for final hearing and disposal in the trial court and the issues involved in the matter are required to be examined after leading of evidence. It is further stated that the parties have agreed to abide by the interim relief granted in this appeal in C.A.No.3887 of 1992 till the final hearing and disposal of the suit.

[2] Therefore, by consent of the parties, it is ordered that the original Civil Suit shall be heard and disposed as expeditiously as possible preferably within six months from today and the parties shall not seek any unnecessary adjournment. In the mean time, interim relief granted as above shall continue to operate.

[3] Accordingly, without entertaining into the merits and rival contentions of the parties, by consent, this appeal stands disposed with no order as to costs. The writ of this order shall be transmitted to the trial court at the earliest.
